HAWAII COUNTY TREASURY EMPTY

May Register Warrants During Next Ten Weeks

As a result of the unprecedented action of the Board of Supervisors last Friday, in transferring $20,000 from the general fund to the road fund, against the protest of Supervisor Shipman, chairman of the Finance Committee, Hawaii County, for the first time in her history, has an empty treasury and is unable to pay warrants.

There is an overdraft of $4483.44.

The setting aside of $20,000 in this way is something that has never been done before, and the members who insisted upon it are accused in current local discussion of "whooping things up" to empty the treasury before the change of administration takes place.

The Finance Committee was not consulted in the matter, according to the usual custom, and the Board did not even wait to see if it had the $20,000 on hand. As a matter of fact it ordered $20,000 transferred from the general fund to the road fund when there was considerably less than $20,000 on hand.—Hilo Herald, Nov. 15.

The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon and the fact that regardless of caste, color or creed Hilo was in complete mourning was an ample testimony to the sincere esteem in which the deceased lady was held. Flugs dropped everywhere at half-past and, from the hour of noon until after the funeral, business was suspended everywhere.

A brief service was held at the bereaved home, after which the cortege proceeded to the First Foreign Church. The casket was borne in by John T. Moir, John Watt, H. M. Wilson, Thomas Forbes, John Napier and William Chalmers, the honorary bearers following being E. E. Richards, Charles Furneaux, Judge F. S. Lyman, William Pullar, L. Severance and W. S. Terry. The funeral arrangements were supervised by E. N. Holmes.

The mourners included all of the members of the family at present in the town. They took seats in pews reserved at the front of the church. Mr. Kennedy was accompanied by Mrs. Charles Furneaux, the most intimate friend of the late Mrs. Kennedy, Ronald C. Kennedy, son of the deceased, with Mrs. Ronald Kennedy; C. R. Kennedy, a nephew, with Mrs. C. R. Kennedy; J. D. Kennedy and Thomas Kennedy, also nephews, comprised the party.

The church was a mass of blossoms of every description, in fact it is doubtful if room could possibly have been found for more. The sweet odors of the flowers sent by sorrowing friends lent a strangely sad atmosphere to the services which followed.

As the casket was reverently placed before the pulpit the choir in gently modulated voice sang "Rock of Ages" and a prayer by Rev. C. E. Shields followed. Rev. C. W. Hill spoke most feelingly and Rev. Shields followed with a funeral sermon from John 11, Epistle, 2: 17. "The world passeth away and the best hereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth forever."

The choir sang "Lead Kindly Light" and "There is a Fountain Filled with Blood" and the solemn congregation filed out of the church to pay the last respects to the deceased at the graveside. The procession to the place of sepulture in the Hilo cemetery was remarkably large. The grave was immediately beside those of Mrs. Kennedy's mother and sister. The services at the cemetery were brief and the large gathering broke up at the cemetery gates.

The late Mrs. Kennedy, whose maiden name was Anna Deacon, was born at Wapleap Falls, Duches County, New York, on October 11, 1850. She went to Honolulu in 1878 and there on April 23d was married to C. C. Kennedy. A year later they came to Hilo and lived at their Waialea home from that time on. She leaves two brothers and two sisters out of a family of eight.

Simply and without the slightest ostentation the late Mrs. Kennedy was never so happy as when doing good for others. Many people in humble life have reason to revere her memory and the extent of Hilo's loss by her departure from this life cannot be estimated in words.

BURNS HAS TRIBUNE

George F. Henshall, who has served the Star for several years with ability and zeal, goes to the Hilo Tribune as its editor. Mr. Henshall is a gentleman whom Hilo will be glad to know and for whose deserts this community will stand sponsor. Under his care the Tribune will be a reputable, courteous and enterprising newspaper.—Advertiser.

It seems an utter impossibility for the unfortunate Advertiser to get anything right. Mr. Henshall deserves all the nice things said of him and the Tribune will continue to be a reputable, courteous and enterprising newspaper—a newspaper after which the Advertiser might, with profit, pattern itself—but Mr. Henshall will have nothing to do with it.—Hilo Tribune, Nov. 13.

VINDICATION?

By some marvellous workings of the hand full of porridge which the Advertiser calls its mind, that delectable sheet finds in the defeat of A. M. Brown that Governor Carter's administration has been "vindicated". Certainly the administration needs vindication, but how it could be vindicated by the results of such work as the Advertiser did has yet to be shown.—Hilo Tribune, Nov. 13.

INSTRUMENTS WILL ARRIVE

Its failure to cause the return of the First Regiment band instruments on or before September 30, 1906, we can say that the Pacific Coast representatives of the company have wired its representatives here that the instruments in question will arrive here on the Korea, due to leave San Francisco on the 20th of this month. As the instruments are not lost or destroyed, but will be here and returned to you in ten days' time, the damage you will have suffered by reason of the default in the matter of time will be slight, if not nominal. As the company's bond is an ordinary suretyship bond and designed simply to protect you, the company feels that the arrival of the Korea should be awaited, when you will receive the instruments, and whatever damage, if any, you may have suffered can reasonably be ascertained, and when the company will be ready to fulfill whatever legal obligation it may owe to you under the bond.

Yours truly,

SMITH & LEWIS, Attorneys for United States Fidelity & Guaranty Company.

This shows that the band is now under a two-fold obligation to come here on the Korea. First of all, a court-martial stares the boys in the face should they fail to obey the Governor's order to appear for the Thanksgiving Day parade. Secondly, even Cohen himself would probably not hanker after keeping the band on the Coast a little longer, in order to recoup his losses, as a band without instruments would be a very sorry asset as a money-making proposition.

The order sent to Berger by cable read as follows:

Berger, Hawaiian Band, Reno: Governor ordered parade 28th. Bring band Korea 20th. Must have enlisted men here. Please forward.

COLONEL JONES.
